

Flying Dove Theatre

Terms and Conditions

- Mobile Phones/Electronic devices are brought to class at a person's own risk and should be left turned off during the class.
- We do not tolerate any interaction with social media during our classes.
- Teachers reserve the right to ask your child to leave the class if they are behaving in a way which is detrimental to the safety and enjoyment of others.
- If a child is removed from a class once, they will be given a first warning. If a child is removed a second time, parents/guardians will be notified and the child will be asked to leave Flying Dove Theatre for the rest of the term.
- We may terminate your membership and your child's entitlement to attend Flying Dove theatre in the case of serious or repeated breach of the code of conduct.
- Teachers could be subject to change without notice.
- Fees are paid in advance, half termly. Unfortunately refunds cannot be given if you cannot attend the sessions that have been booked.
- A half term's notice is required to cancel your place.
- Students must be collected on time to comply with safeguarding regulations.
- Bullying, harassment, abuse or other inappropriate behaviour by you, your child or visitors is not tolerated. We reserve the right to exclude or take other legal action as appropriate.
- Flying Dove Theatre is covered by public liability insurance which protects your child in our class when they are following the code of conduct.
- Smoking and vaping are forbidden.
- The consumption of alcohol or bringing alcohol onto the premises is forbidden.
- Being under the influence of illegal substances is forbidden.
- If you have a complaint, please first speak to your class teacher and if this cannot be resolved, we will take the next appropriate steps to do our best to resolve the matter.
